We are happy to present this stunning South facing Fontana I apartment. This apartment is sold as seen in photos and is in an unbeatable condition. The property consists of two good size bedrooms with built in wardrobes, one good size bathroom with a built walk in shower, a good size fully restored independant kitchen with its own private utility room and a large open style living room area with a very good size private balcony with panoramic clear views of the surrounding orange fields and mountains. The property has inducted A/C in every room for hot and cold, also has two central heating units for winter months. The Fontana I complex has become one of the most popular in the area, Its fantastic communal areas such as pool and gardens make this gated community one of a kind, aswell as the stunning complex we have the fabulous location in the heart of the beautiful village of Algorfa, with all amenities within walking distance. Algorfa is located only 12 KM from the stunning beaches of Guardamar and 40 KM from the Alicante Airport. The property includes allocated private underground paking spot.
